

PATHWAYS TO TRADITIONAL BUILDING SKILLS: A EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVE

TUESDAY 24 AUGUST 2021
10AM – 4PM GMT
LOCATION: ONLINE VIA ZOOM

Please note all times are GMT. Central European Summer Time is +1hr from times shown

9:55am	Event opens
10am	Welcome and introduction. Gordon Mole, Head of Service, Economic Development, Fife Council.
10:05am	Official welcome on behalf of Scottish Government
Session 1: European and national context
10:20am	Erasmusplus Traditional Building Skills Project. Fiona Fisher, Project Coordinator, Fife Council.
10:40am	Erasmusplus traditional building skills: comparative research between Scotland and Europe. Charles Jones, Historic Environment Scotland.
11am	Break

Session 2: Transnational experiences and learning
11:10am	Norway. Trond Remme Technical Dept International Co-ordinator, Voss Vidaregåande Skule, Voss.
11:30am	Poland. Michal Owsianikow Director, International Co-ordinator, Zaklad Doskonalenia Zawodowego and Fapo, Toruń.
11:50am	Break
12pm	Scotland. Claire Mayne, Teacher of CDT, St Andrews RC High School, Kirkcaldy.
12:20pm	Meeting current and future skills needs through traditional building skills. Marc Fleming, Fife College.
12:40pm	Q&A. Chaired by Colin Tennant, Historic Environment Scotland.

PATHWAYS TO TRADITIONAL BUILDING SKILLS: A EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVE

TUESDAY 24 AUGUST 2021
10AM – 4PM GMT
LOCATION: ONLINE VIA ZOOM

1pm	Lunch break and networking
------------	-----------------------------------

	Session 3: The future of traditional skills training.
1:30pm	Traditional skills training in Europe: post-Covid and green recovery. Graham Bell, Europa Nostra
2pm	Innovation and mainstreaming in Scotland. Douglas Morrison, Construction Scotland Innovation Centre.
2:30pm	Q&A. Chaired by Colin Tennant, Historic Environment Scotland.
2:50pm	Break

	Session 4: Engagement
3pm	Engaging young people in Scotland with the built environment: what role for traditional skills? Rachel Dornan, Developing the Young Workforce Forth Valley.
3:20pm	Erasmusplus resource showcase. Scottish Lime Centre Trust.
3:40pm	Q&A. Chaired by Colin Tennant, Historic Environment Scotland.
3:50pm	Thanks and close. Fife Council.

Timings subject to change, a final programme will be circulated ahead of the event.